COMPETITION DETAILS AND RULES

There are no entry fees and no restrictions on who can enter. There are three classes: OPEN, GARDENS and BUSHEY SUBJECTS. Gardens can be interpreted how you wish, but the judges will take into account how well an image fits this category.

Prints should be mounted on cream mounting board 8x10 ins or 12x16 ins. Mounting boards of these sizes can be bought from Bushey Museum shop on or after 29 April 2010. Prints should be surface mounted (no window mounts) on a single thickness of mounting board, with a border of at least 1 inch of mount visible on all sides after mounting (prints not complying with these requirements will be disqualified). Prints will be hung using self-adhesive Velcro™ at each corner of the back of the mount. Please put a title ("No title" or "Untitled" is not acceptable), name, address and telephone number in the centre of the back of each mount, and hand in to Bushey Museum during normal Museum opening hours: 11am to 4pm on Thursdays to Sundays.

Bushey class images will only be accepted as computer files in JPEG format, on CD or as email attachments. The file name must include the entrant's name and the title of the image, alternatively the file name, title, entrant's name for each image may be listed on the back of the entry form. The image size must not be greater than 1260 x 960 pixels. Both portrait and landscape formats are acceptable. A paper entry form must be supplied for each entrant.

Judging will take place between 21 and 26 June and winners will be notified prior to 2 July when the prizes will be presented. There will be substantial prizes for each class. In addition, the best image in any category directly associated with the Bushey environment by a newcomer to this Exhibition will receive the Gawan Vesey Challenge Cup.

Selected images will be on display at Bushey Museum during the Festival. Prints can be collected on or after 22 July 2010 during normal Museum opening hours - failure to do so by 26 September will result in the print being destroyed. Digital images (in the Bushey class) will be displayed sequentially throughout the exhibition and may remain on display for several months and will then be archived in the Museum collection. Copyright remains with the photographer but the organisers reserve the right to use any image submitted for Bushey Museum or Festival purposes.
